

The “Because” Public Service Announcement Transcript of :60 Version

Because my parents told me I have to be responsible...

Because my first coach told me, “you can do this”...

Because my teacher helped me see the choices...

Because my coach treated me like everybody else...

Because my boss showed me how to do a good job...

Because a mentor believed in my potential...

Is why I am where I am today.

I’m swimming faster than I ever dreamed I could.

I discovered that I could work as an artist.

I led my high school team to two championships.

I am a valuable employee.

I have a career that I am passionate about.

I will be whatever I want to be.

What can YOU do?

What can YOU do?

Like all young people, youth with disabilities should grow up expecting to work and succeed.
